

Killarney Community Centre is Open for Priority Programs

Since the majority of Vancouver community centres closed in March, the network has been working diligently towards a cautious and strategic recovery of services within all Vancouver communities.

The Killarney staff team is pleased to announce the return of priority services at Killarney Community Centre starting September 8th with a gradual rollout over the coming weeks of priority programs for childcare, children, youth, and seniors. Sign up now ... by calling, dropping by or online.
